I. Introduction

The Wynantskill Union Free School District's Board of Education ("Board") is committed to providing a safe and orderly school environment where students may receive and district personnel may deliver quality educational services without disruption or interference. Responsible behavior by students, teachers, other district personnel, parents and other visitors is essential to achieving this goal.

The district has a long-standing set of expectations for conduct on school property and at school functions. These expectations are based on the principles of civility, mutual respect, citizenship, character, tolerance, honesty and integrity.

The board recognizes the need to clearly define these expectations for acceptable conduct on school property, to identify the possible consequences of unacceptable conduct, and to ensure that discipline, when necessary, is administered promptly and fairly. To this end, the board adopts this Code of Conduct ("Code").

Unless otherwise indicated, this Code applies to all students, school personnel, parents and other visitors when on school property or attending a school function.

VII. Public Conduct on School Property

The district is committed to providing an orderly, respectful environment that is conducive to learning. To create and maintain this kind of an environment, it is necessary to regulate public conduct on school property and at school functions. For purposes of this section of the code, "public" shall mean all persons when on school property or attending a school function including students, teachers and district personnel.

The restrictions on public conduct on school property and at school functions contained in this code are not intended to limit freedom of speech or peaceful assembly. The district recognizes that free inquiry and free expression are indispensable to the objectives of the district. The purpose of this code is to maintain public order and prevent abuse of the rights of others.

All persons on school property or attending a school function shall conduct themselves in a respectful and orderly manner. In addition, all persons on school property or attending a school function are expected to be properly attired for the purpose they are on school property.

Penalties

Persons who violate this code shall be subject to the following penalties:

1. Visitors -Their authorization, if any, to remain on school grounds or at the school function shall be withdrawn and they shall be directed to leave the premises. If they refuse to leave, they shall be subject to ejection.
2. Students – They shall be subject to disciplinary action as the facts may warrant, in accordance with the due process requirements of Education Law and NYCRR.
3. Instructional staff members -They shall be subject to disciplinary action as the facts may warrant in accordance with Education Law and NYCRR.

IX. Middle Schools Grades 6th -8th

Behavior Expectations and Discipline Regulations

We all recognize that students, faculty, staff and parents must work together to ensure a safe, respectful and cooperative atmosphere in order to provide the best learning environment possible. Our basic philosophy encourages each student to become more responsible for his/her own actions and to accept the consequences resulting from those actions. The essence of effective middle school discipline is cooperation, respect and courtesy. Parents are urged to join this effort by carefully reviewing these rules for good behavior with your child(ren) and by signing and returning the attached form indicating that you have received and reviewed these rules together with your child(ren).

X. Students Dress Code

Appropriate dress in school means neatness in grooming and cleanliness. You should dress by thinking of school as your workplace. Use common sense which demonstrates respect for and responsibility to yourself and others. Halter tops, crop tops, short shirts, short skirts, "short shorts" and tank tops are not appropriate to wear within the school building. Any undergarments showing are not appropriate, for the workplace or school. Dress that is so distracting as to interfere with the learning process may be prohibited. Hats and other types of non-religious headgear are not allowed. Clothing advertising alcohol, tobacco or drug use will not be allowed. Beads, bandanas, etc. that may be used to identify an association are also prohibited. In all respects, students must comply with the dress requirements established within Section V hereof.

In general, rules apply to all facets of school life. There is no distinction between the library, the study hall, the cafeteria, the playground, the bus, or the classroom. At all times, students are to keep in mind the rules of the school (see behavior expectations page 29), and adhere to them.

Incidents not specifically covered in this document may be handled in a professional manner at the discretion of the school staff. A safe, orderly, healthy educational environment is the result of students, staff, administration and parents working together in cooperative effort.

The Gardner -Dickinson School Discipline Code is in compliance with all laws relating to students with disabilities under in Individuals with Disabilities Act (IDEA).

XI. Disciplinary Actions

(Definitions) In-School Suspension:

In-School Suspension (ISS) is a supervised study time from 8:35am to 3:17pm. Students assigned to In School Suspension are suspended from all extra activities, (i.e., athletic practices and contests, concerts, dances, clubs, etc.) for the entire day of suspension. Students assigned to ISS are required to sign an agreement acknowledging the rules and expectations for their behavior. If a student refuses to attend ISS the student is suspended out of school. Upon the students return, the student must serve his/her assigned days in a specific designated area

Out of School Suspension:

Out of School Suspension (OSS) is employed when other consequences have been unsuccessful or if the student has engaged in actions, which endanger the health and safety of themselves or others. Tutoring is provided by the district at Gardner -Dickinson School 3:20pm to 4:30pm. Students assigned to Out of School Suspension are suspended from all extra activities, (i.e., athletic practices and contests, concerts, dances, clubs, etc.) for the entire length of suspension.

Principal's Conference:

This conference is indicated in the Code of Conduct as a requirement for a student readmission to school or is scheduled at the discretion of the Building Principal in response to serious or repeated infractions of the Code of Conduct. At minimum, this conference will include the Building Principal, the student and the student's parent or guardian. This conference will conclude with clearly communicated expectations, which the student will follow.

Superintendent's Hearing:

When all other interventions have failed to produce a positive behavior change or when a specific behavior seriously interferes with the educational process or safety of the building, the Building Principal may request the Superintendent to schedule a Superintendent's Hearing. This hearing may result in a student's long term suspension from school.

PINS Petitions:

The District may file a PINS (person in need of supervision) Petition in Family Court on any student under the age of 18 whom demonstrates that he or she requires supervision and treatment by:

1. Being habitually tardy and not attending school as required by one of Article 65 of the Education Law.
2. Engaging in an ongoing or continual course of conduct which makes the student ungovernable, or habitually disobedient and beyond the lawful control of the school
3. Knowingly and unlawfully possesses marijuana in violation of Penal Law 221.05. A single violation of Penal Law 221.05 will be a sufficient basis for filing a PINS Petition.

Counseling Services

Students may be referred to Gardner-Dickinson School's school counselor or school psychologist for assistance or evaluation. Students may also be referred to outside agencies.
