

Gardner Dickinson Literacy Fair

Gardner Dickinson is hosting our first-ever Literacy Fair, and all students are invited to participate! Students may create a project at home inspired by something they have read or have had read to them. Projects based on books and original writing are welcome. Examples of projects include but are not limited to: posters, dioramas, mobiles, book reports, book trailers, comic books, and poetry. Family members and friends are invited to attend the Literacy Fair on Wednesday, March 20. Projects will be displayed, and literacy will be celebrated! If your child is interested in participating, please fill out the attached paper, and return it to your child's teacher by Friday, March 8. Please consider attending the Literacy Fair regardless of whether your child submits a project. The book fair will take place from 5:00-7:00 on the evening of the literacy fair, and attendees will have the opportunity to win books from the book fair!

Please email Katie Sheehan at ksheehan@wynantskillufsd.org with questions.

Presentation space: All registered projects will be assigned table space of approximately 36" by 36". This accommodates a standard tri-fold display board with table space in front of the board. Please indicate on the registration form if you will need wall space for hanging project materials, an electrical outlet, or floor space due to a large project.

If your presentation changes or if you decide not to participate in the Literacy Fair, please email ksheehan@wynantskillufsd.org ASAP so we can make sure there is enough space for everyone.

Please return the paper to Classroom Teacher by Friday, March 8, 2019.
