

Summary of Comments:

- Increase communication between home and school.-Newsletters, Website, Social Media
- Examine COVID protocols to see if some restrictions may be loosened.
- Discuss the effects of the mask mandate - teaching & learning, socializing, health and safety
- Allow for more activities to come back
- Informational Nights for parents to learn about curriculum, grading, & classroom expectations.
- Increase opportunities for parents to participate in focus groups and school activities.
- Investigate attendance procedures and notification protocols.
- Increase academic enrichment and support for struggling students.
- Increase SEL supports across all grade levels.
- Find alternative activities for indoor recess.
- Increase opportunities for student and family input about activities and school initiatives.
- More clubs and afterschool activities with transportation provided.
- How can athletic programming be expanded/or modified?
- Do children still have to transport Chromebooks back and forth?
- Examine Middle School Programming
- Increase SEPTA & PTA membership and participation. More volunteers are needed.